

MY BUSINESS PROFILE: EDMOND NG'WALAGO

I am Edmond Ng'walago, a graduate in Logistics and Transport management. I have worked with the International Institute of tropical Agriculture as an assistant agribusiness manager of youth Agripreneur project from January 2016 to August 2018. Currently I am working as chief executive officer of Ngwilago Youth Transcend. Through my organization I have succeeded to reduce the effects of pesticide poisoning by 40% in my community and train more than 200 youth in agribusiness where by 75% of them are successfully.

My hardworking, innovation and creativity have made me to receive several awards. Such awards are innovativeness and creativity in advancing agribusiness 2018 given by the African Development Bank, Best innovator Award 2019 given by the Tanzania Commission for Science and Technology and Young Graduate Entrepreneurship award 2018 given by the National Economic Empowerment Council. I received these awards as recognition of my contribution towards, good health, zero hunger and Education.

I have experience in International matters/agribusiness as I have attended different International conferences. Such conferences are;- African Youth Agripreneur Forum that took place in Nigeria 2017 and Ivory Coast 2018, ENABLE Transformation for African Agricultural Technologies (TAAT) 2018 in Kenya and Youth Connect in Rwanda 2018.